

INTRODUCTION OF THEME

WHAT NOW?! WHERE NEXT?!

That surely nails the frame of mind of the two disciples who had left Jerusalem and walked toward Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35). They shared their disappointed hopes with a certain stranger who walked with them. Yet, even as this stranger laid out for them a biblical context for recognizing this Jesus as resurrected Lord, in spite of the way their hearts “burned” within them, this stranger’s identity remained hidden. Only when they ate together and Jesus broke and offered them bread did they realize who that stranger had been and that Jesus was most certainly alive!

But where and when is Jesus alive? That the Emmaus-bound disciples discovered Jesus around the table in the intimate fellowship of eating together, that the post-crucifixion Jesus appears to the gathered disciples, that Jesus offers himself, body and spirit (“this is my body...” “receive the Holy Spirit”) to the gathered church helps us to catch on. Jesus is alive in the gathered body. We are the body of Christ!

So “What Now?! Where Next?!” It’s continuing the work of Jesus: peacefully, simply, together. It’s living out our district vision: Rooted together in Love to be Christ’s transforming hope and power. It’s discovering that Christ is alive in us!

Don’t miss Gathering 2013! Bible study, solid preaching, inspiring worship, new ideas, friends old and new, regenerating nature, and even ice cream make this an unforgettable experience.

Where next for you and your congregation?
