Osheta Moore

2024 District Women's Retreat

"Living Wholeheartedly in a Brokenhearted World"

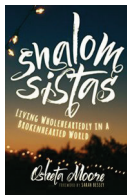

April 5-7 at Heartland Center, Great Bend, Kansas

Osheta Moore is a trained spiritual director living on Dakota land near Saint Paul, Minnesota. She has spoken at our National Youth Conference and at National Older Adult Conference in 2023.

A Moravian pastor, Osheta has authored two books, Shalom Sistas and Dear White Peacemakers. In her writing she calls us to own our Belovedness and to proclaim the Belovedness of others (especially those marginalized and harmed by oppressive systems), so that we can become genuine expressions of the Beloved Community right where we are.

Shalom Sistas is available from Herald Press at heraldpress.com

Have you wondered what are the things that make for peace? Do you fall somewhere between the peacemakers by disposition who are “God-kissed persons wearing a perpetual halo” and the “peacemakers by occupation, offering their bodies as human shields in a war zone”?

Shalom Sistas take up the middle, making their corners of the world a little more whole and welcoming and bringing the shalom of God. We can too!

Referring to four parts of Shalom Sistas, Osheta will lead us into:

- Shalom with God
- Shalom within Ourselves
- Shalom in Our Relationships, and
- Shalom in Our World.

Our retreat begins with registration on Friday, April 5 at 3:00 p.m. and the retreat closes at 11:00 a.m. on Sunday, April 7.

Our schedule will also include morning watch, recreation, and free time.

Five meals are included with retreat registration. Comfortable lodging at the Heartland Center features one or two persons per room, with bathroom down the hall.

If you can't come in person, you can still hear Osheta's three presentations and watch Sunday worship on Zoom—a registration option.
